Didn't make plans this long weekend? These 5 properties could still help you rejuvenate

SUMMARY

CNBC-TV18 connected to experts in the travel industry to understand how can one make the most after missing out on planning an extended weekend holiday. Here are 5 properties that can still help you enjoy a relaxing time.

If you've missed out on making plans for the long weekend, worry not. Last-minute plans, more often than not, end up being the best laid plans. While weekends give us some well-deserved respite from the daily grind, an extended weekend is something we must capitalise on and ensure our bodies get rejuvenated to the core. But we're sure there are many who didn't even realise there's an upcoming extended weekend (September 30 to October 3) as Gandhi Jayanti on October 2 (Monday) is a national Holiday and missed out on planning for the same. If you're one of those and wish to feel that you should ride the extended weekend bandwagon, here's some help at hand. Although planning is important, CNBC-TV18 spoke to some experts in the travel industry to understand how one can make the most after missing out on planning an extended weekend in advance. Here are 5 properties in and around Mumbai, which you could still head to for a relaxing time.

No 1. Radisson Blu Plaza and Convention Centre, Karjat | Located between Mumbai and Pune, the Radisson Blu Plaza Resort and Convention Centre, Karjat is the perfect destination for weekend getaways and family holidays. With a view of the stunning Sahyadri Mountains and the Ulhas river from almost every room, this property can provide an ideal escape from the hustle and bustle of city life. Average cost for stay: Rs 12000 per person +Taxes. (Image: Reuters)

No 3. Rhythm Hospitality | Located in Lonavala, Rhythm is not just a destination; it's an experience, where you can escape the daily grind and immerse yourself in the lap of nature. Average weekend rates: Rs 10k to 14k + Taxes.

No 4. Homestead, Jim Corbett by Lohono Stays | This is one place that people from the west of India would have to plan in advance to visit. The Homestead is Located 18 km from the expansive Jim Corbett National Park and is a picturesque resort place in India's oldest tiger reserves established in 1936. Bask in the sunshine and enjoy Corbett's pleasant weather with your loved. Average Cost per person: Rs 11,000 per night. (Image: Shutterstock)

No 5. Srinivas, The Royal Residence, Jaipur by Lohono Stays | Experience regal living amid the rich heritage and grand palaces of the Pink City. Srinivas Royal Residence is an erstwhile private residence of a royal family of Jodhpur. The pink sandstone walls, jaali windows and dome Ghumtis pull you into a universe of grandeur, heritage and art. The six cosy bedrooms feature elegant Rajasthani furniture, Kali Ghero paintings, Jodhpur stonework and terrazzo floors. Every detail of the residence holds a cultural legacy, reflecting the taste of its erstwhile royal members. Average Cost: Starts at Rs 17,000 per room for one night.
