CHOOSE THE RIGHT DESTINATION FOR A PERFECT WEDDING

A wedding is a special occasion for the family, the people who attend, and especially for the couple getting married. Every little detail of the wedding function needs to be perfect. It is a chance to make beautiful memories in a perfect, stress-free manner.

Choosing the right destination is not an easy task, but we can make it easier by giving you a few options that we feel, would suit your requirement best. Read on as Farvi Motiwale Wadhwa lists down an array of properties to select from.

RHYTHM RESITEL

IN LONAVLA

Rhythm Lonavla offers the most picturesque venue for couples looking for their dream destination wedding. Their specialized wedding management team can handle all aspects of the wedding, and they have a panel of event vendors and decorators to make the wedding experience seamless and hassle-free. They have lavish venues and banquet halls, both indoor and outdoor, which can accommodate over 250 guests, and are ideal for all wedding-related events. They also offer a wide selection of delicious food including pure Jain options, that are perfect for all palates.

Rhythm ResiTel is a division of Rhythm Hospitality, a diversified conglomerate in the real estate and hospitality sectors which juxtaposes real estate and hospitality in a new-age asset class. Rhythm ResiTel offers a fusion of resort ambience and real estate ownership, where individuals can buy resort suite units as a convenient property investment yielding long term secured returns as well as capital appreciation. The ResiTel asset class ensures productive use of the property both for superior income generation purposes as well as for enjoyment in a hassle-free way.

Rhythm ResiTel is promoted by the Jais family, one of the oldest families in the Indian hospitality & real estate sectors. The business is currently run by next generation promoters who come from a strong pedigree of working across global real estate private equity firms & education from prestigious American Universities.
